

Applicant: Buchert et al.
Application No.: 10/670,062

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Claims 1-10, 12 and 19-28 were previously allowed and remain pending in this application along with new claims 29-31. Various claims have been amended to improve readability without the intent to limit their scope. Changes regarding some dependent claims were made. New dependent claims 29-32, directed to a preferred fold size disclosed at application par.[0035], were added.

Additional art is cited from a corresponding Japanese case, but it is believed that the newly cited art does not effect the allowability of the pending claims.

In view of the foregoing amendment and remarks, Applicants respectfully submit that the present application, including the pending claims, is in condition for allowance and a notice to that effect is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Buchert et al.
